

Do you know the abductions by North Korea?

North Korea is using an agent from the 1950s
on the orders of the late Kim Jong-il
Many Japanese were abducted from Japan

It is said that the number is more than 500 people

And North Korea has kidnapped people in 12 countries around the world

South Korea, China, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore,
Romania, Lebanon, Jordan, the Netherlands, France, Italy, Japan

To rescue them,
we are collecting signatures
to be submitted to the Government of Japan

North Korean spy ship was taken in the waters of Japan.

After this was suicide

And stacked weapons

Individual Cases

1 November 15, 1977: Abduction Case Involving a Young Girl

Megumi Yokota (13, Niigata Prefecture)

Disappeared on her way home from school in Niigata city.

When taken to North Korea she kept on screaming “Mom, help me ! Mom, mom...”

She was only 13 years.

2 In or around June 1978: Lee Un-Hae Case

Yaeko Taguchi (22, unknown)

Kim Hyon-Hui, a North Korean agent convicted of the bombing of a Korean Airlines jet in November 1987, claims to have learned how to act like a Japanese person from a woman named “Lee Un-Hae.” This “Lee Un-Hae” appears to be the missing Yaeko Taguchi.

She had two little children. Now they are working to rescue their mother, Yaeko..

3 August 12, 1978: Abduction Case of a Mother and Daughter

Hitomi Soga (19, Niigata Prefecture) and

Miyoshi Soga (46, Niigata Prefecture)

Disappeared after going out on August 12, 1978.

They were saying that they were going shopping.

Hitomi Soga returned to Japan in October 2002. Her husband (Charles Jenkins, a US citizen) and their two daughters arrived in Japan in July 2004.

North Korea asserted that Miyoshi Soga never entered North Korea.
